

Leveraging Generative AI for Academic Publishing: A Hands-On Workshop

Prompts

March 25, 2025, 12:30pm-1:20pm, JMC 570

1. Hi, my name is Dr. Alexey Semenov and I am an Associate Professor of International Business and International Management at Belmont University. Here is my Google Scholar profile:

<https://scholar.google.com/citations?user=2eA0VdwAAAAJ&hl=en&oi=ao>

Please read my work and understand my writing style.

2. I will need your help with revising my manuscript titled "Why do MNEs Face Different Levels of Liability of Foreignness: Examining the Effects of the Interaction and the Alignment between Firm-Specific and Host Country-Specific Advantages and the Host Country Advantages" (please see the uploaded document). Please read the manuscript and propose a title that would be a better description of the manuscript. Please do not take any other action.

3. I am planning to submit this paper to the Journal of International Business Studies. Please read the paper format requirements here:

<https://www.palgrave.com/gp/journal/41267/authors/presentation-formatting>

Here is the aim and scope of the journal:

<https://www.palgrave.com/gp/journal/41267/authors/aims-scope>

Please let me know if you want me to copy and paste the text with the required format or if you can read it using the link I provided.

4. Please assess my manuscript if it fits the aim and scope of the journal. If yes, please explain how, if not, please explain why it does not fit.

5.1 Based on this information, please write a cover letter to the editor. Please use the revised title of the manuscript you proposed earlier. Please find the editor's name on the journal's website. Use this information as my signature "

Sincerely,

Alexey V Semenov, PhD

Please make the cover letter a downloadable Word file. Thank you.

5.2 For ChatGPT: Please use this uploaded cover letter as an example of a format and structure for the cover letter you are writing. Please rewrite the cover letter for my manuscript following the uploaded example.

Note: Consider moving 5 and 5.1 after 6 when the manuscript is rewritten

6.1 Can you please read all relevant to my paper literature and suggest additional contributions and managerial implications for my paper? Please provide in-text citations and full references.

Note: ChatGPT did not find any relevant (current articles to include in the paper).

6.2 Can you please rewrite my manuscript following the journal formatting requirements? Please use the revised title you proposed earlier.

- Please ensure that the structure of the manuscript, citations and references, headers, etc. fit the requirements.
- Please ensure that the manuscript is within the journal word/page limit.
- For this Journal please stay within 10000 words including references and tables.

- Incorporate your suggested contributions and managerial implications into the revised paper.

Please prepare the revised paper as a downloadable Word document.

6.3 Can you please rewrite my manuscript following the journal formatting requirements? Please use the revised title you proposed earlier.

- Please ensure that the structure of the manuscript, citations and references, headers, etc. fit the requirements.
- Incorporate your suggested contributions and managerial implications into the revised paper.

I will provide you with a separate section of the manuscript. Please improve the readability of the section, align each section with previous sections, and eliminate redundancy in the manuscript and within each section. Can we do that?

6.4 (Deep Seek): Please rewrite the section. Do not use bullet points

7. Please rewrite the section. Can you please ensure that all original citations are present in the rewritten manuscript?

Notes:

- Copilot entry limit 8000 characters
- Deep Seek has a chat limit for the conversation. You might have to start a new chat to complete the paper review.

8. I will upload the manuscript, can you please format the references, citations, and sections using the journal requirements for formatting the paper?

Please read the paper format requirements here:

<https://www.palgrave.com/gp/journal/41267/authors/presentation-formatting>

Try home:

1. I will upload the manuscript. Can you please format the references, citations, and sections using the journal's requirements for formatting the paper?

Please read the paper format requirements here:

<https://www.palgrave.com/gp/journal/41267/authors/presentation-formatting>

2. I will upload the reference list. Please use APA guidelines to format my references.

3. Please find the articles' Digital Object Identifier (DOI) and incorporate them into the reference list for each article.
